

HOLOCAUST EDUCATION

RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT

Dear

Thank you for your interest in Journeys, the newest addition to our lineup of Holocaust education resources.

This curriculum focuses on SEL & Citizenship Education while meeting many other cross curricular ministry requirements. It empowers students to be their own teachers, influencers, and researchers while inspiring them to become lifelong learners.

We will provide direction to you, the teacher, for how to support your class through these themes and topics. There is no cost to receiving or using this document, however, by using it, you are choosing to partner with us in your student's success. We ask that you not share the curriculum with anyone directly, so we can keep track of usage and build relationships with the educators and institutions that embrace this curriculum.

This partnership means that you agree to participate in what we refer to as "commitment of reciprocity." In exchange for receiving the curriculum and in lieu of payment, it would be most appreciated if you, your school, your students, and/or your community would:

- Make a donation of _____ this will allow us to keep doing what we are doing!
- Write a reflection about what you have learned or how you have grown and send it to us for our blog. (with photos) We love hearing your take-aways! And don't forget to write a meaningful Facebook or Google review about Margaret's Legacy.
- Keep us in the loop throughout your lessons by tagging us in social media posts or sending photos, videos and regular updates to media@margaretslegacy.com.
- Have your students send us blog posts and journal entries we can share on our social media.

Aside from reciprocity, there are a few opportunities to get more involved in Margaret's Legacy as an educator, a member of the advisory committee, or as an ambassador. Please reach out if you are interested in being a part of our team.

We are honoured to be part of your learning environment and hope that, in even some small way, Margaret's legacy will be carried on by each and every one of your students.

Please send a signed copy of this agreement to info@margaretslegacy.com

Looking forward to partnering with you,

The Margaret's Legacy Team
